Sweet remembrance of the past,
When my love and me met
At the Tlawng river.*

*I love the windy Tlawng river
As it flows thro' my native hills
'Tis there where lovers meet in joy,
Of parts in tears again
I love the weary Tlawng river
Where I met you to part again
And the birdies sang adieu,
Down the lonely Tlawng river.*

Is lost forever more
Our home was up in Lushai Hills
Before this cruel war.*

*Then carry me back to Lushai Hills
Back where I long to be
Among the fields of yellow corn
To my darling Ellie Rhee.*

- II. Oh ' Why did I, from day to day
Wish myself to be free
And from my Masso run away
And leave my Fllie Rhee.*
- III They say that I would soon be free
And happy shall the day
But if they take me back again
I'll never run away.*

Dear Mr Peters,

I have just heard from Suaka of Curtlang, who in may day was the Lushai Clerk that you have relieved Major Mc Call and that formerly you were at Lungleh and are mighty proficient at the Zo!awng.

I venture to congratulate you on ruling my old kingdom, which I left with great regret for Manipur 34 years ago. I write especially on behalf of a youngster Vaibawia, the youngest son of my old friend, Lalluauva. I expect that you know all about him and that you know how great a debt we owe to his father. If Lalluauva had not stood by us in the rising of 1892, we should have been in a very bad way, as a reference to my diary of that date will show. So I know that you will do your best for young Vaibawia, who I am afraid is not a very wise youngster. I gather that he is not actually in charge of his village, being underage. I McCall sent me that fat file, which he called the Lushai cover, and it certainly does cover the administration of the Lushai Hills. I see in that that in case of the Chief being a minor, a near relative is installed as 'Regent' I ventured to write to Mc Call that I did not think that was a wise innovation, because human nature being what it is, the temptation to make hay while the sun shines will certainly be too much for the ordinary run of Regent, who being in the running for Chief, will be much tempted to arrange matters so that he may become chief and not regent.

In the old days when the Chief dies leaving a minor son, the government of the village was carried on by the widow and the Upas or if the widow died by the Upas alone. This not being of Royal blood, could not in those days aspire to the Chieftainship, and as far as I can recall they carried out their duties very loyally, both towards the Sorkar and towards the young Chief.

However I am an old fogey long seated on the shelf, and am only interested in trying to get young Vaibawia given every chance on account of what I owe to his father, so I hope you won't mind my writing to you.

The post of Bor-Sap is a more difficult one to hold than it was in my day. I had no Mission questions, at least the Missionaries raised to questions, in my day. The only trouble I can remember was when the Lungleh Missionaries started and their teachings did not quite tally with that of the Welsh brethren in Aijal and there was some danger of two rival bodies of Christians coming to logger heads, but I settled that by getting the Lungleh men over with their wives for Christmas and when the people saw the two lots of persons holding service together all was well. The most wonderful thing to me is that the Padres have got the Lushais to give up Zu. That seems to me really a miracle. Of course, I don't entirely approve. The Lushais in my day were not drunkards. They liked an occasional bust and were none the worst of it because Zu is a most healthy drink and I think a man who can drink in moderation is a finer fellow than who never touched Zu. However my old friend Lorrain, tells me that he and Savidge came to the conclusion that the Lushai were incapable of being moderate drinkers. But what a horraid change from the view of Bor-Sap on tour. Why, what a joy it was when one came panting up the steep bit and found at the top in a shady corner, the Chief and his Upas, awaiting one with chungas of Zu and fresh cut bamboo cups out of which to drink it when one discuss various matters. And then the pleasant evenings, in the Chief's house seated on a rolled up puanpui, listening to the gossips and the jokes while the Zu passes round. I am afraid I could never get reconciled to a T-T tal of Lushai Land. I did remember one terribly dull evening spent with a Christian Chief, his Christian wife and one Christian Upa, I went to bed very early that evening.

Well well, we old busters of course think ours' were the good old days, so Enough.

Fare you well and bese of luck,
Yours Sincerely,
Sd/- J. Shakespeare.

PS. I sent an account of the making of Aijal, which you may find interesting. Perhaps you may think it worth having a copy made kept in the club.

Dear Chaudhury,

I am extremely sorry to see that your Shri A.Thanglura has been allowed to indulge in our District affairs. Unless you hold him you may see bloodshed come out thereby harming your dignity. I have come to learn that he has made a very hot argument with the Chief Secretary there as he tried to mislead the government for his private enjoyment.

The present set up of Mizo District Council headed by Pu Ch Chhunga has been constituted exactly according to Constitution and rules and Regulations.

I therefore hope that your wisdom is sufficient to quiet the Situation by giving a correct verdict over the present crisis.

The Commissioner S.J.Das would be able to give you the correct position of this District Council.

Unless things are settled according to rules and Constitution we would report all to the Government of India which would harm your prestige.

The only suggestion I am giving you is to keep your A.Thanglura out of this picture and the rest will be alright.

Hoping your sympathy and good wishes I remain.

Yours Sincerely

Subject : PROPOSAL OF CONVERTING THE MI-ZO HILLS INTO UNION TERRITORY.

Dear Manam,

While we are happy to know that the Central Government are anxious to solve the political problem of the Mizo Hills, we are, at the same time, constrained to submit that the proposal of converting the trouble-torn District into a Union Territory would not meet at all the political aspiration of the Mizo people especially at this juncture. On the contrary it would become a veritable Pandora's Box with the lid off.

In this connection, We as the only Members of the Assam Legislative Assembly, representing the entire Mizo Hills, deem ourselves to be well in a position to express the public opinion of our District. And we therefore crave your indulgence to place the following facts before you so that you may be able to appreciate our stand and evolve a lasting political solution for the Mizos.

First of all it may be mentioned that in the General Elections of the Mizo District Council, held in the month of April, 1970, the Mizo District Congress Committee had contested all the twenty two seats on the issue of restoring peace, tranquillity and normalcy, while still remaining in Assam. In spite of the inimical attitude of the Deputy Commissioner of the Mizo Hills, who was the Returning Officer of the elections, the District Congress Committee had captured as many as ten seats. On the other hand, the Mizo Union Party that had run the District Council for the last 18 years, and had contested the elections on the issue of Mizo State, ostensibly with the support of the District authorities, managed to get only nine seats. The election results had therefore showed beyond doubt that the paramount object of the Mizo people especially after the suppression of the Mizo rebellion that broke out in 1966, had been to restore, first of all, peace, tranquillity and normalcy in the turbulent District.

Secondly, while the Central Government had already decided that the case of the Mizo Hills would be considered only when normalcy actually returned in the District, it would rather be premature and indiscreet to convert the Mizo District into Union Territory especially when Law and Order situation in the Mizo Hills had been deteriorating owing to the shattering political turmoil prevailing next door. On top of that, when the proposed Union Territory had not been warmly received even by the Mizo Union leaders who are all out to accept something as a face saving means, we can subscribe out-right that the bulk of the Mizo people who are thoroughly disgusted with the Mizo Union leaders, would have nothing to do with it, let alone the Mizo rebels who are quite puffed up with the help of the Chinese in East Pakistan.

Thirdly, the Mizos are peculiar people who are rather fastidious and over ambitious. Since the people, by and large are politically conscious, the status of Union Territory with all its paraphernalia will be like a sand Castle that would be flattened out by the advancing tide of politics.

In any case, as it falls far too short of the expectations of the people in general, it would not be the political solution for the Mizo people. In short, it would be a fruitful source of discontent and anarchy as the unemployment problem would be inevitably increased

Under the circumstances, We would propose for serious consideration the following :—

Creation of a separate United Mizo—Manipur State, comprising the Lakhipur area in Cachar and the contiguous areas of North Cachar Hills predominantly inhabited by the Mizos.

Before concluding, may we again repeat that Mizos, under no circumstances, would like to be a Centrally administered Union Territory.

Yours faithfully,
Sd/- A. Thanglura,
8. 6. 1971
